

Persuasive Language

Provide your opinion on the topic	My first reason...	A second reason...	My last point...	In conclusion...
	My first argument...	Furthermore...	Another reason...	Therefore I believe...
	My first point...	Secondly...	Finally...	Finally...
	Firstly...	In addition...
	To begin with...
Give examples of your arguments... for example
such as for instance

believe should must definitely

IMPROMPTU Cards

Cut these cards into individual topic cards. Children select one and use the Persuasive Language board to assist with an impromptu speech.

Children should be made to clean their rooms.

Everyone should be made to eat broccoli.

Animals should be kept in the zoo.

We should be allowed to have pets at school.

The Principal gave us permission to ride bikes to school.

You should not pick your nose.

Should we eat sweets?

Should we be allowed to stay up late watching TV during the week night?

Girls are better than boys.

School should start at 11am and finish at 5pm.	Teachers should be made to wear a school uniform.	Parents should allow children to go to sleep whenever they want.
There should be a three day weekend.	Canteen should sell junk food.	Waiting for the walk sign to cross the road wastes time.
We must put our rubbish in bins.	We should recycle.	Reading books is better than watching TV.